CURRENCY & MONEY EXCHANGE

The local currency is the Euro (€). Exchange desks can be found in your hotel. Banks and exchange offices are located throughout the city. Bank hours are Monday to Thursday, 8:00 am to 2:30 pm; Friday, 8:00 am to 2:00 pm; Saturday and Sunday closed. Branches of the National Bank in Athens can be found at Syntagma Square and Omonia Square. They are open from Monday to Friday, 8:00 am to 6:30 pm. ATMs can be found throughout Athens.

TIPPING

Tippling is at your discretion, but customary. Aboard ship: €8 per adult (€4 per child) is automatically added to each account per day to cover gratuities. This amount may be increased or decreased at your discretion. Excursion guides/ drivers: It is customary to tip and we recommend about €4 to 6 per person/day or so to cover both. Restaurants: 10 to 15% will be added to your bill but may not make its way to the serving staff, so you might wish to leave another 5 to 10% in cash on the table.

TELEPHONE

Direct calls can be made from your hotel room. Local phone booths take phone cards that you may purchase from hotel shops and kiosks. These cards are valid for local and overseas calls, cost about €5 and last approximately 3 to 5 minutes. The actual duration of any card varies according to the company issuing it. Please inform yourself accordingly.

The country code for Canada is 001.

Canada Direct: 0800161

MCI: 08001211

AT&T: 08001311

TAXIS

All taxis in Athens work on meters. The meter starts at approximately €1.20 and there are two fares:

Zone 1 5:00 am until midnight

Zone 2 Midnight until 5:00 am

Minimum fare approx. €3.20

Always make sure meter is turned on before proceeding with your journey.

TRAM & METRO

The tram & metro features three lines: the Red Line (Agios Antonios-Agios Dimitrios), the Blue Line (Egaleo-Athens airport) and the Green Line (Piraeus-Kifissia). The price of a one-way fare is approximately €1.40, but you can purchase a one-day pass for around €4. The city is linked to the coast by a 28.9 km tramway line that provides easy access to Faliro, Alimos and Glyfada.

BARGAINING IN BAZAARS

In the bazaars of Turkey, the social ritual of bargaining is the rule. Begin by offering about 60% of the asking price and be prepared to go up to about 70 to 75%. You may need to leave in order to bring down the price, and never let anyone know how much you like something. It's great fun once you get the hang of it and a smile goes a long way!

FOOD & DRINK IN GREECE

Ouzo, a spirit with a licorice flavour, is the traditional aperitif. Tasty wines are found just about everywhere (the rugged Retsina, however is an acquired taste). The best known appetizers are taramosalata, a delicious fish roe spread, tzatziki (yogurt with cucumber and garlic) and melitzanosalata (eggplant and garlic dip). Seafood is very popular here; fish can be chosen personally and will be gladly trotted out for inspection. The most popular meat courses include arnaki (lamb), gourounopoulo (suckling pig) and souvlaki, meat kebabs grilled on a skewer. For those with a sweet tooth, dessert shops feature pastries, cookies, ice cream, chocolate and sticky buns of flaky filo pastry filled with honey and nuts, known as baklava and kataifi.

EXCURSION TIPS

Destinations and excursions contained in this pamphlet are for information purposes only. In all cases, comfortable, non-slip walking shoes, a sun hat and bottled water are recommended. Religious sites, such as monasteries and the like, have appropriate dress codes. Bare shoulders and knees are not permitted (a light covering for bare arms is advised), as well as shorts of any kind. In some instances, excursions are not suited to elderly persons or those with restricted mobility.

SCHEDULING OF EXCURSIONS

All tours depart from and return to the hotel and/or pier adjacent to the ship's berth. Please book your tours with your Transat Holidays representatives. Should you choose to leave the tour en route, it will be your responsibility to secure transportation back to your hotel or ship. Passengers should be on board the ship no later than 30 minutes prior to the scheduled sailing time. The ship's departure cannot be delayed for late returning passengers.

DESTINATION REPRESENTATIVES IN GREECE

Our destination representatives are always ready to assist you! You'll find the number for our 24-hour help line in the binder at the Transat Holidays desk or on the information sheet you received upon your arrival in Greece. We will be glad to help you!

GREECE

ATHENS

Majestic & Modern Everywhere you turn in Athens, you will be awestruck by the way the past and the present work together to create a city that is alive, bustling and exciting. Athens, the capital city of Greece once thought to be protected by the goddess Athena, remains a magical, romantic place.

CRETE

A Wondrous Isle Zeus and his son Minos, legendary king of Crete, both sprung from this marvelous place. The ecosystem of Crete is unique, encompassing varied flora as well as animal species found only on this island. Vacationers adore its boundless beaches, numerous tavernas and fascinating museums, and the more adventurous will try raki, a strong spirit made from grape must.

IONIAN ISLANDS

Corfu, Cefalonia, Zakynthos These luxuriously wooded islands are the most western European in flavour of all the Greek isles, residing approximately midway between Greece and Italy, and have been a popular vacation destination since antiquity. Corfu is probably the most well-known of all the islands, while Cefalonia, inhabited for over 50,000 years, boasts lively beach resorts and Mount Ainos National Park. Zakynthos is a great place to rent a car and explore the island's mountain villages, monasteries, and fabulous vistas.

DODECANESE ISLANDS

Kos & Symi These islands offer a mesmerizing blend of gorgeous scenery, whitewashed houses, historic ruins and wonderful weather. Mellow Kos boasts gorgeous beaches along with a rich history that evokes the grandeur of past civilizations. Its bustling capital, Kos Town, is packed with scores of shops, lively bars, restaurants and Greek tavernas. Tranquil Symi offers ancient monasteries, superb architecture and pristine beaches. Traditional villages, neoclassical architecture and one of the most beautiful harbours in Greece make it a wonderful choice for a relaxing vacation.

MYKONOS

The Quintessential Greek Island As romantic as it gets, Mykonos is the most popular of all the Greek islands. The characteristic, dazzlingly white cube-shaped houses contrast strikingly with the intense blue and green of their wooden doors and shutters. Little winding streets, windmills, and smooth sand beaches complete the picture of the perfect island paradise.

NAXOS

The Greenest Isle Naxos, the largest of the Cyclades, has all the wonderful features of some of Greece's most popular islands, plus even more culture, history and living traditions. It remains relatively quiet, without the crowds some of the other islands experience during high season. This Mediterranean paradise has been inhabited since 3,000 BC, ruled by a number of different occupying forces, including the Venetians and the Ottoman Empire, making it an exceptionally rich source of archaeological, architectural and cultural artefacts.

PAROS & IOS

The Wonderful Cyclades Well-known for its nightlife, visitors to Ios bask in a festive atmosphere, as evident on the island's golden beaches as it is in the nightclubs and open-air tavernas. Picturesque Paros abounds in pretty coves, miniature churches, narrow cobblestone streets and Byzantine monuments.

PATMOS & RHODES

The Mytic & the Colossus Patmos, where John of Patmos wrote Revelations, is a key Christian pilgrimage site and a very pleasant place to visit. Majestic Rhodes, whose port was once guarded by the Colossus, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, offers a cosmopolitan atmosphere enriched by an astonishing blend of ancient and modern.

SANTORINI

Rejuvenates the Soul It is what many of us envision when we dream of Greece, and this fashionable island frequently surpasses the fantasy. Days on the island give way to nights of dramatic sunsets enjoyed from pleasant open-air cafés. Few sights are more memorable than the dazzling whitewashed buildings that sit perched on the rim of black volcanic cliffs.

TURKEY

Land of sunshine and history, with immaculate beaches and lively, cosmopolitan cities, Turkey gracefully straddles two continents. Statues, temples, theatres, agoras, churches, mosques and palaces tell the tale of its storied past and refined people. Irresistibly exotic, Turkey's awe-inspiring, multifaceted culture impresses all visitors, yet it is also a modern country that has much in common with its European neighbours. Savour this fascinating land and its way of life, the charming mysteries of the seraglio, and all the opulence of its rich Oriental heritage.

Terms & Conditions

RESERVATIONS

The information on excursions contained in this pamphlet is indicative only. These excursions are available through the Transat Holidays representative at the hospitality desk of your hotel or cruise ship. Please ask your representative about the hours of operation. Other excursions than those outlined in this booklet are available.

SCHEDULING OF EXCURSIONS

All tours depart from the hotel and/or pier adjacent to the ship's berth. Please note that all passengers should be on board the ship no later than 30 minutes prior to the scheduled sailing time. The scheduling of all shore excursions conforms with this requirement. At the completion of the tour you will be returned to the hotel or pier unless you elect to leave the tour en route. In this case it will be your responsibility to secure transportation back to your hotel or ship, at your own cost, and it is your responsibility to return to the ship on time.

The ship's departure cannot be delayed for late-returning passengers. Passengers must be aware that there is a possibility their ship may be unable to berth in inclement weather.

REFUNDS & CANCELLATION

Your booking for any excursion is confirmed immediately with the excursion operator in each resort. Therefore, no refunds can be given for any unused or partially-used tours.

PRICES, INCLUSIONS & ITINERARIES

Excursion prices and/or itineraries and/or tour inclusions in this booklet are all subject to change without prior notice. Meals and/or beverages are not included unless otherwise specified. Excursions may be offered in one language or be bilingual. Excursion content may vary slightly depending on the service provider. Any of the described excursions may be cancelled for any reason, including lack of participants, and with or without prior notice. In such circumstances, Transat Holidays' sole responsibility shall be to refund in full all monies paid.

RESPONSIBILITY

The travel services described in this booklet are provided by service providers independent of Transat Holidays and TourGreece. Some excursions or activities may not be suitable for everyone. Participation is at your discretion and at your own risk of loss, damage or injury. Transat Holidays and TourGreece make no representation as to the quality or safety of any excursion provided by these service providers, who are a third party, and over whom Transat Holidays and TourGreece do not have any control. Consequently, Transat Holidays and TourGreece cannot be held responsible for the acts, representations, omissions, fault or negligence of these service providers or that of their employees, nor for any loss or damages suffered as a result thereof, nor for any loss, injury, accident you may suffer or any costs, delays or expenses resulting from, or in connection with, your participation in these travel services. The travel services provided are subject to the terms and conditions imposed by the service providers. By purchasing these tour services and/or other activities you signify your agreement to the Terms & Conditions contained in this booklet.
