Baru

You're about to live two unique experiences in one trip: the discovery of the colonial city of Cartagena – famous for its fortifications, 18th-century colourful houses and exciting nightlife – combined with a seaside holiday on Baru's peninsula, whose idyllic beaches and turquoise waters create an ambiance of absolute relaxation.

Good to know

Be sure to attend the briefing held at the beginning of your trip. Your representative will confirm the meeting point and departure time of your transfer to Baru, and will provide you with destination information.

Transportation

Please consult your representative for information.

Tipping

Tips are at your discretion and are very much appreciated by the cleaning ladies, bellboys, guides and chauffeurs, as well as the waiters and bartenders.

Baggage

We recommend that you pack comfortable walking shoes, sunscreen, insect repellent, sunglasses, a hat, a camera and cash for souvenirs. Please ensure you have your luggage when departing from your hotel in Cartagena.

Currency

The local currency is the Colombian peso, but most establishments accept U.S. dollars. Visa and Mastercard are the most widely accepted credit cards. Colombian ATMs accept most Canadian bank cards, making it possible to withdraw Colombian pesos.

CARTAGENA

Cartagena

Colourful and vibrant, Cartagena is Colombia's main tourist destination, and its colonial centre with balconies covered in bougainvillea is, undisputedly, the most charming in the country. Spend your holiday visiting its monuments and fortress, listed as a UNESCO World Heritage site. Or stroll through its trendy neighbourhoods – such as Getsemani, whose walls are adorned with street art – and unearth some unique Colombian souvenirs.

EXCURSIONS
Your representative will provide details on available excursions during the briefing.

Things to see and do
